11th Annual International Fatherhood Conference

“Maximizing Father Engagement, Celebrating 100 Years of Father’s Day in America”

June 16-19, 2009
Tremont Plaza Hotel in Baltimore, MD

ANNUAL INTERNATIONAL FATHERHOOD CONFERENCE OVERVIEW

The International Fatherhood Conference brings together policy makers, researchers, and practitioners from around the world concerned with improving the well being of children through increased father involvement and strengthening families.

This year’s conference theme is, “Maximizing Father Engagement, Celebrating 100 Years of Father’s Day in America.” In numerous cases, fathers across the globe fail to realize that a strong relationship with their child is fostered through time spent together. Regardless of economic status, mother/father relationship status or past mistakes, this conference strives to highlight and educate all men about the awesome and on-going privilege of Fatherhood. In honor of the 100 year anniversary of the ‘Father’s Day’ holiday in America, NPCL is proud to welcome practitioners, researchers and policy-makers to embrace, understand and commit to the importance of Father Engagement.

The 11th Annual International Fatherhood Conference will offer 30 workshops which have been designed to help people be effective service providers and parents to children. This year’s workshop focus will be to demonstrate through a combination of research, successful projects and Fatherhood/Parenting initiatives that father involvement is and will continue to be a pivotal component of successful child development. In addition, the conference will recognize 50 fathers/father figures, nominated by children (ages 7–17) who have been influenced by significant men in their lives. These men range from Fathers, to exemplary community members to role models in churches. It is an annual privilege to recognize these men as Favorite Fathers. This year’s Favorite Fathers of 2009, will focus on the influential men of Baltimore County and the Washington, DC Metro area specifically. The highlight of the conference will be the Spirit of Fatherhood Awards Ball & Banquet. This semi-formal attire ball & banquet will take place on Wednesday June 17, 2009 at 7:45PM at the Tremont Plaza.

NPCL welcomes you to learn and celebrate with us at this wonderful ‘Father’s Day’ celebration in Baltimore, Maryland. We look forward to seeing you in June!

Sincerely,

Jeffery M. Johnson, President
